

CONTRACT TERMS

ACCOUNT# _____

Clothing and Non-Clothing Items

- The Consignor will receive 50% of the selling price on all clothing and shoes and 40% on all non-clothing items (i.e. toys, books, games, furniture, etc.) during the Consignor's individual timeframe. Sprouts Consignment, LLC. sets all prices and markdowns for each individual consigned item.
- All items have a 60 day selling timeframe. During the Consignor's selling timeframe, if there are any unsold items after 30 days, those items will be reduced to 25% off the original price. At the end of 60 days of the individual Consignor's selling timeframe, the Consignor will no longer receive any percentage of the sale of any items.
- Sprouts Consignment, LLC has the right to hold special sales and discount items at will.
- Upon completion of item intake, there is NO reclaiming of your consigned items after drop-off.
- There will be an initial consignor fee paid up front of $10.00 for all new consignors. Each year after, all consignors will be charged an administrative fee of $5.00 annually which will be deducted from your account credit.

Payment

- Payment by check will be issued during the last 7 days of the month upon request of the Consignor. Check requests for amounts under $10.00 will not be issued unless the account is being closed. It is the Consignor's responsibility to collect monies owed. Checks will not be mailed. Positive account balances may be used as store credit at any time
- Accounts that have been inactive for 1 full year, which includes, no drop offs, no items sold, no used credit or check retrieval, will be deactivated and all monies will be forfeited.

Other

- Items are accepted with an appointment only. 20 clothing and shoes items maximum per appointment per season.
- Sprouts Consignment, LLC reserves the right to refuse any items that are not suitable for resale. Those items will be returned to the consignor during their scheduled appointment. Items placed into inventory, which upon closer inspection, are found unacceptable, will be taken off the floor immediately and donated.
- When certain items become overstocked, further consignment of that item will be temporarily suspended at the sole discretion of Sprouts Consignment, LLC.
- All items must be in excellent condition, current style and season, snapped, buttoned and zipped upon drop-off. All toys, games, & puzzles must have all pieces/parts. Toys/items that require batteries must come equipped with batteries. Items that are dirty, stained, torn and/or missing buttons, zippers etc. will not be accepted.
- NO consignments will be accepted without an appointment. No exceptions.
- Sprouts Consignment, LLC will not allow for the solicitation of customers in the store from Consignors.
- Sprouts Consignment, LLC reserves the right to make changes to the terms of the contract at any time.
- Sprouts Consignment LLC is not responsible for loss or damage to merchandise due to but not limited to fire, water, vandalism, or theft.
